New Horizons

Laura Weeden

We stand on the threshold of destiny.

Until now "some day" has been a far-off feeling;

"Future" has carried only minute meaning.

And yet, here, presently, we must choose a path to follow,

Follow obediently for the rest of our lives.

Our former years have given us the might to choose,

But have we the wisdom,

Have we yet earned the right to make such a decision?

All we have learned, and all we have striven for

Suddenly seems not enough.

With the prospects of lifes' competition

Are we now ready to face the world?

This challenge is placed upon us

Not only by our leaders but by our followers.

And the answer from the Class of 1965 is yes!

Yes, we'll fight—

Harder than ever before to gain a better world for all.

Yes, we'll learn—

And as we learn we'll teach.

And finally we promise to try.

We'll try more than anyone else has ever tried,

And, although the road will become steeper,

By the grace of God

We'll climb to new horizons.

"A sense of urgency is a prerequisite for success."

Over the long years of a lifetime one learns many things of a revealing nature. Some of the great truths of living a good life dawn upon us only through long and sometimes intense experience. The residual effects of these experiences are often so subtle we are unaware that they have affected us. It is the responsibility of those who teach to illuminate the way, to clarify the issues and to emphasize repeatedly proper values. It is our moral and professional duty to persevere in these goals. We sincerely hope that Braintree High School has been faithful to that trust as far as you are concerned. May those lessons learned enable you to live a good life.

THESE PAST YEARS

Led by JOHN WELSH, Wagonmaster; NANCY FISHER, Scout; VIRGINIA CANNON, Journalist; and GRACE CAPACCIOLI, Financier, the wagon train of the Class of 1965 began its journey at the Hollis Building. We had three years, beginning in September of 1962, in which to complete our trip to a new horizon in life. As the youngest and newest members of the train, we learned to bear the good-natured teasing of the upperclassmen and, from them, we caught the first spark of motivation that sustained us during long hours of studying and tests. Even hardships such as these could not dampen our school spirit, however, as evidenced by the fact that we attended the Thanksgiving Day football game in spite of the heavy rain. Later we watched our undefeated Junior Varsity basketball team in action and the BHS gymnastics team in its first year of competition. Our Junior Varsity cheerleaders gave fully of their pep and energy in cheering at all the home basketball games. We had started our journey just in time to participate in the second half of the EXCHANGE CONCERT which had been initiated the previous year. As members of the BHS band, a few Sophomores were guests of the High School Band of Keene, New Hampshire. Some members of our class had achieved recognition from their acting in "The Teahouse of the August Moon". Now as we approached the end of the first leg of our trip, other class members were feted by the school when they were inducted into the FRENCH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. The ONE ENCHANTED EVENING of our SOPHOMORE SOCIAL ended the first year's search for a new horizon.

For the second part of the journey, the territory that stretched out before us was both bewildering and exciting. A change to the Main Building also brought about a change in the officers of the wagon train. ROBERT SAPORITI became Wagonmaster, NANCY FISHER, Scout; CHARLAINE STEWARD, Journalist; and GRACE CAPACCIOLI, Financier. At first we were a little fearful of what this portion of the trip would bring our way, but the tremendous success of "The Diary of Anne Frank" calmed our doubts. After a wonderful HOMECOMING, we settled down to seriously prepare for our first College Boards. At the AWARDS ASSEMBLIES, we proudly watched our numerous school teams, of which the Juniors constituted a great portion of the membership, receive their trophies: an undefeated soccer team, a hockey team in its first year of Bay State League competition, the Debate Club, and especially a Varsity basketball team that was defeated only in the Class B finals of the Tech Tournament. Fifty members of our wagon train were further honored by induction into the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. During the SHANGRI-LA of our JUNIOR PROM, we determined to make the last year of our journey even more successful and profitable than the previous two years.

JOHN WELSH was privileged to be the Wagonmaster for the final stage of our journey. NANCY FISHER was once again elected Scout, as were CHARLAINE STEWARD and GRACE CAPACCIOLI re-elected to their previous positions. Another successful HOMECOMING was followed by the fall production of "The Miracle Worker". After the football and basketball seasons, we were charmed by the yuletide atmosphere of the SENIOR CHRISTMAS PARTY. Although the New Year brought increased worry concerning college admissions, it also brought activities for Seniors only. The first of these was STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY, on which an elected member of the Senior class participated in the proceedings on Capitol Hill. The night of the SENIOR SHOW gave everyone an opportunity to display his talent. Finally, there came the long-awaited romance of the SENIOR PROM. On GRADUATION DAY, we proudly accepted our diplomas. As the last strains of the Alma Mater floated on the breeze, our thoughts sadly turned to the memories of these past years. However, we could not dwell on these remembrances too long. Facing us now were the dreams and hopes of the new horizon in our life.

'65 PROPHECY

Here we are, R. WRIGHT, M. NORWOOD, C. COOKE, and B. NEAGLE, all set to start our tour of the World's Fair in New York. Meteorologists, W. DE BEAUMONT and C. CRUIKSHANK have promised us some good weather. As we were about to enter, we were surprised to see L. MAGALDI and S. STEPHEN selling tickets. Our progress was impeded by J. MISCHLER, D. JOHNSON, C. KOHR, J. MILLER, R. DI RAMIO, and W. BLACKBURN who were all participating in the Stall-in. Once inside the Fair, we were approached by J. CHELLUK and L. DUTHIE, drivers for the Greyhound carts. We decided to split up, with BARRY and ROGER going with the former and CONNIE and MERRI going with the latter. After passing the Unisphere and waving to D. HARTLEY and M. AVOLA, who were perched on top of it, we drive on to the giant Ferris Wheel and watched S. STOVOLD, E. DE ANGELIS, M. O'DEA, M. HOBBS, V. McCARTY, and C. HEURLIN. We were about to board but decided in favor of the Monorail. Hostess D. McLAUGHLIN greeted us at the door, R. KEARNEY took our tickets, and K. STACEY guided us. From the Monorail we saw D. YORK, D. MORCOM, R. KEARNS, and T. DEXTER feeding the porpoises at the Florida exhibit. Our attention was caught by the Dancing Waters where we saw A. WILKEN and R. WALSH wading near the Fountain. Gazing out over the city, we saw J. RUSSELL urging on the Mets. G. ZAWATSKI, pitcher, was supported by W. WILLIAMSON on first, R. PELLEGRINI on second, D. LAURIA on third, and F. MARTIN as the catcher. J. DALUTE was warming up in the bullpen as B. HURRIE and K. McVAY were warming up the bench. Their strong opposition was led by D. HIGGINS with a formidable group of soft-ball players who consisted of H. MacGILLIVRAY, J. GRIFFIN, A. JORDAN, P. NIEMI, J. CLEVELAND, K. COOK, P. PAPPAS, and C. THORSON. We will always wonder who won the game! Crossing the river, we caught sight of R. WHITE, J. WOELFEL, S. GRUND, L. GIORDANI, and Captain R. TOMBARI, at the wheel, waving to us from the Mississippi Showboat. Embarking from the Monorail W. DUDOVICZ and R. FIELD met us with Taxis to take us to the Wax Museum. We were delighted to see T. NORRIS taking pictures of the statues of W. NEWMAN, W. MAJOR, L. TRACEY, L. STEELE, D. MOLONEY and V. IMBERNINO. From here we caught the opening of the time capsule from the 1938 World's Fair, and who should emerge but R. STOKES and M. PAYNE. Strolling down the Avenue of Progress, we saw R. FREESTONE and W. NORTON busy cleaning the street while D. HALL and L. MacDONALD painted the white lines. Finally we reached the I. B. M. Pavilion and waved to R. SHEEHAN and E. HELLER. Since our feet hurt, we decided a brief rest in the Garden of Meditation with M. CRISTOFORO, M. McINNES, R. MITCHELL and S. CAUFFMAN was in order. We were soothed by the music of W. DRAKE, B. MERSEVE, R. SYLVESTER, C. JENKINS, E. NELSON, and C. BABCOCK with their car-part instruments. During the intermission, we were entertained by D. SARNEY, R. SAPORITI, and J. WELSH who sang the old, familiar folk songs. We were so impressed with the view of the Fair from the Monorail that we decided to take a ride on the Jaycopter. We decided to ride with S. MULLANEY, K. McLAUGHLIN, S. MILLS and W. STONE. From the Jaycopter we could barely distinguish C. STEWARD, D. LA BRECQUE, E. WEITZMAN, and T. ZUFFANTE at the Space Park. After seeing that, C. COMIS, J. MULLEN, W. ERWIN, and L. RUSSO emerged drenched from the Log Flume Ride. We decided that was one ride we could do without. On our flight we passed over the Bounty which was captained by G. ROYER and served by J. GRUGAN, J. WHITE, and P. TURCOTT. Homeward bound, we passed over W. STODDARD, G. SHORES, R. FITZGERALD, K. O'BRIEN, J. KEOHANE, L. BOULEY, A. DESJARDINS, and S. KENDRICK driving some model antique cars. Back at the Heliport, we found G. SWEETSER, J. McEACHERN, R. POWER, and C. ZAMPINE waiting to have their turn. After being driven to so many places, we decided to test our own driving skills with P. KIEVENAAR, E. LE VANGIE, J. McNULTY, R. MEYER, P. PAGE, and T. HILTEN at the Socony-Mobile practice controls. We were quite worried to drive by and see M. MERCIER, J. NELSON, B. STONKUS, and D. MORRISON risking their lives at the Auto Thrill Show. We soon forgot their danger when we saw the Ice-Travaganza featuring S. PEASLEE, R. LA PLANTE, R. ETHIER, R. LA FLEUR, B. KNIGHT, and B. STRATHDEE. We saw even more B. H. S. athletes at the try-outs for the Olympics. Some of the most outstanding were W. ESTES, W. EWING, R. DAUPHINAIS, P. HAUSCHILDT, W. FARRELL, D. SWARD, G. SEIBERT, B. VAUGHN, K. BROWN, J. CONNEELY, E. HINTSA, G. RUARK, and B. BENT. We had had a good view of the Fair, but L. ADAMS, E. ANDERSON, R. DACEY, J. LABREE, and J. MUSSILLO had an even better one atop the New York State Tower. They told us they had seen P. BIXBY, E. BROWN, captain T. FLAHERTY, and social directors B. BEMIS, L. BOWER, K. FAGAN, V. LYONS, and M. McINTIRE on a lake cruise.

Next on the agenda was our tour of the state pavilions. We started off in New Mexico where we saw Indian dancers J. MICKIEWICZ, D. KEEN, and S. DEERAN. We bought an Indian blanket from D. CRISPIN, L. LAZISKY, and T. GRABOSKY. As we moved on to Hawaii, we saw K. MURPHY and D. FIELDING performing the Hula accompanied by W. FRAZIER and J. MULHERN as fire-dancers. We switched climates and went to Alaska where we saw C. LINDER, C. MUNRO, T. YERKES, and S. WILDER skinning seals. Wanting to hear some good jazz, we decided to go to the Louisiana Pavilion where we heard K. YORKE, J. ALLEN, M. GLENNON, and L. FOSS swinging out with a Dixieland beat. Journeying on, we went to the Montana Western Museum where we saw D. JOHNSON, N. SEBRING, D. SPICER, J. SULLIVAN viewing the exhibits. Feeling slightly homesick, we went back to the New England Exhibit. There we saw F. D'AGOSTINO, P. GLYNN, G. HAVILAND, D. BOHLKEN, W. MURPHY and B. ROBINS urging their frogs on in the Frog Jumping Contest. Then we wandered over to the Country Store. We were waited on by R. MAHONEY, C. PELRIN, F. GILLESPIE, R. GRONDIN. We decided to take in the Sportsman's Show with R. BARRY, C. BARTON, J. MacDONALD, S. KELLY, and W. BECKER. Standing by the 17 ton piece of cheese were F. FOLLETTE and J. LASKEY. The sound of J. BARRY, E. DE MARCO, C. BARRUS, E. COLEMAN, L. COLLINS, and K. KELLEY giving a band concert attracted us to the Oklahoma Pavilion where we saw R. BENNETT, J. SIMPSON, J. KEENAN, and R. DUNN watching the Indian Dances. Travelling on, we were fascinated by P. BLAIS, M. CONNOLLY, R. COOK, R. JONES, C. DOWNING as glassblowers at the West Virginian exhibit. Heading further south, we admired the fans of K. GALLAGHER, P. POWERS, D. MacDONALD, J. FARINA, and L. LE GRAND who had spent quite a bit of time on Florida's sundeck. Desiring something a little more glamorous, we journeyed over to the Hollywood sets where we saw F. HENNESSEY, C. WILLIS, M. HURRIE, B. DOYLE, E. LANK, and C. BARRETT practicing for their debuts. Leaving Hollywood, we saw V. CANNON and N. DONAHUE talking to M. CONNELL and R. ENGSTROM on the picture telephones. From there, we went to the Clairol Beauty Show—for women only. ROGER and BARRY decided they would go to get something to eat at the Century Grill where they met D. CLIFFORD and R. CONTI, who had been waited on by B. RICHARDI and D. KING. Meanwhile we girls watched a demonstration at the Clairol Salon by J. HETTSTROM and S. CARDINALE. Leaving we saw four worried parents, M. DUNDON, M. MORAN, S. NELSON, and P. DRYER, looking for their lost children. On the international scene, we watched E. BELYEA, S. E. ALGER, J. BERNARDO, and G. CAPACCIOLI bamboo dancing at the Philippines Pavilion. Passing the Hong Kong Pavilion, we saw D. RANIERI and L. MARTIN being fitted for suits to be made that day. For a change of pace, we went to Austria's Pavilion where we watched the films of the Olympics with J. RAUTENBERG, S. HOFFERTY, C. NUSS, T. GIBBONS, and P. NEARY. Boarding the magic skyway with B. ENO, F. MALONEY, P. SCANNELL, G. TOYE, we were whisked to the Caribbean Pavilion where we listened to the still bank of B. HURD, W. KUMP, J. CUNNINGHAM, and the voices of the calypso singers D. LE VANGIE and F. SMITH. From there we went to the Rio de Janeiro Pavilion where we saw S. DOWD, R. CHANDLER, L. FITZGERALD, P. VIGUE, Ele. JOHNSON, and R. BURNS enjoying themselves on a luxury liner "anchored" in the harbor. After taking the Aerial Tower Ride with S. G. ALGER, S. MacKENZIE, R. GRAY, and P. MORGAN, we caught sight of a little outdoor cafe; and upon venturing a little closer, we found it to be the French Pavilion. Here we saw N. STORM, P. SILOWAN, M. PALOMBO, R. WRIGHT, and L. MANCINI still struggling with their long-overdue French make-up. Because of our busy agenda, we had worked up quite an appetite. We decided to eat in a tree house at the African Pavilion. There we met B. PARKER, P. ORMSTON, P. SCHIAVONE, P. CANELLI, C. NEIL, and T. GOODWIN. N. CUFF, hostess, who seated us, and we were waited on by L. DEL VECCHIO, A. VAILLANCOURT, M. WATSON, and D. DAIUTE. For dessert we went to "Chunky Square" where we watched L. VANMETER, P. CLIFFORD, M. CONWAY, and M. JONES make candy. After refreshing ourselves, we then felt ready to tackle the Hall of Education. Here we observed T. HOAGLAND, M. MURPHY, J. ROSS, P. WALDEN studying just as they did when we first knew them. Then we moved on to the boy scout demonstration where we were surprised to see R. STADIG and T. STUART helping some of the younger boys. We passed the Hertz Agency and were not at all surprised to see A. BROWN, P. THOMPSON, N. MESSER, J. RUSSO, M. McCARTNEY, and J. MARCHANT considering the amount of driving they used to do. We noticed a long line of people at the Parker Pen Pavilion, and upon entering we found W. HOURIHAN, K. IRWIN, and D. JORDAN eagerly signing up for French pen pals (girls of course!) and D. TROTT, R. HULL, and W. JENNINGS, just as anxious to get a Spanish pen pal. Signing up for a French pen pal of a different gender were C. McLEOD, L. TOMASI, I. McDADE, as were R. MANGANELLO, M. LE VANGIE, J. HANNON for Spanish pen pals. We were fascinated by the sight of the internal combustion engine being run by F. McNEICE, K. WARSAW, C. MULCAHY, P. QUINTILIANI, and V. LEISTER.

For a change of pace, we decided to go to the Continental Circus. We were stunned to see R. VENTURA and R. SIITONEN running laps around the ring. Bareback rider, J. ANDERSON; clowns, J. JONES, E. BOGGS, J. CHARBONEAU, and D. SCOTT; strongman, L. SICUR-

ANZA; fat-lady, P. O'LEARY; lion-tamer, P. VICTOR, with assistant V. DORE; and tight-rope walkers, P. BARRY, K. HANSON, M. AKINS, and A. ANDERSON were pointed out to by ringmaster R. HOGABOOM. After the circus, we met B. STALHUTH, S. NELSON, P. MacDOUGALL, W. BROWN, and D. CONSENTINO at the Coca-Cola Tower. After being refreshed we decided to start out again to see more Pavilions. Our first stop was the Scott Paper enchanted forest. There we saw P. SMITH, W. PAYZANT, C. FINN, J. MACOMBER, L.

JAMESON and M. HANCOCK. We then ventured on to see the Puppet Show, which was run by G. BOSWORTH, K. DIEMER, A. NELSON, and R. SPINK. The puppets resembled our old friends J. GRUNDY, P. SHARPE, and C. SMEDILE. After enjoying the Puppet Show, we went to the Kodak Picture Tower where a robot gave a demonstration to us and G. WALDEN, R. TENNEY, D. FINERFROCK, J. O'BRIEN, J. CURLEY, JA. PETERSON, JT. PETTINGEIL, V. TARTARINI, and K. CALAHAN.

MERRI and CONNIE decided they wanted new hats so we all wandered over to the Arlington Hat Pavilion where we saw N. FISHER, L. MEYER, P. REVERE, and L. WEEDEN trying on hats. Wanting to show off our new hats we decided to go to the Schaefer Pavilion where we hoped to see some movie stars. However, we did see J. ANTONOWITCH, J. AIELLO, S. KOEN, and G. LAWTON. We left there and arrived just in time to wave good-bye to T. BECK, K. WARD, G. ZAHN, T. BRODERICK, and L. HICKEY as they were taking off on their rocket for the moon.

For some excitement we went into the Funhouse of the Future where we were entertained by M. CHAFE, J. MacKINNON, T. McCARTHY, P. McGRATH, M. REHFELD, M. RASMUSSEN, J. O'KEEFE, B. PAUL, M. MacDONALD, and D. ROCHE. This really tired us out, so we decided to rent a compartment at the Simmon's Pavilion where we could each rest for one-half hour. We were surprised to see that J. ADAMS, G. ACKERSON, G. FITZGERALD, and D. HORSFORD were also resting. After our snooze, we were hungry, so we went to the Mastro Pizza where we tried flipping our own pizzas with F. ABBONDANZIO, D. ANTONELLI, J. FRAZIER, and H. MORLEY.

Since we hadn't been on a ride for a while, we decided to go on the Swiss Sky Ride with L. ZOPATTI, T. HOLBROOK, B. MacDONALD, and L. GINGROW. From there we saw ELIZ. and R. JOHNSON just going into the Johnson Pavilion. (That's strange!) We also got a glimpse of DO. MacDONALD, M. WILSON, and D. KELLY admiring the Tower of Light. Looking out the windows, we had a good view of M. SULLIVAN, J. PETERSON, J. McPHERSON, L. SMITH, J. JOYCE, M. CAINE, C. GOLDWAIT, and B. CRESWELL rowing boats which they had rented from C. MURPHY, R. MULLOY, R. SOUTH, and S. NAHABEDIAN. As we travelled to the other side of the Fair, we could see R. BLACKWELL, D. VALENCIA, P. LIBERTO, A. JONES, and L. STONEHOUSE sliding down the dinosaur's backs. Finishing our ride, we were met by hostesses, SU. and SH. CARROLL, M. DOOGUE, and S. DE COSTA, and almost knocked over by S. LUNDQUIST. They escorted us to the court of Astronauts, and we arrived just in time to welcome C. PERILLI, J. MINNUCCI, S. MAXHAM, and F. BONCODDO from their trip to Venus. We stopped for more refreshments at the Pepsi Pavilion where we were served by D. MAGLIOZZI, E. TIGGES, and K. O'BRIEN. Then we headed toward the Underground World Home where we were greeted by G. STANLEY and S. SEBRING, and guided by D. KENISTON, R. TROUP, and J. MacFARLANE.

Wanting to mail some post cards to J. BAKER, R. CURRERI, R. HILL, and V. LOVEJOY, we stopped at the Post Office. We were surprised by clerks, C. ANDERSON, R. VERZONE, K. SMITH, and E. CARBERRY. Short of funds, we stopped at the American Express Money Tree where we vied with D. ANDERSON, R. BAILEY, R. DELGIACCO, and V. CLEMENT for one million dollars worth of international money. Although we didn't succeed in getting any money, we decided we could afford to send M. MORTON, T. RUSSO, K. WHITE, S. DARLING, P. SALVUCCI, K. O'CONNELL on a Pepsi-Unicef's trip around the world. After seeing them off, we went to see the Progressland the Medallion City Exhibit. W. RUMRILL and R. MARTIN directed us to the performance starring L. ROBINSON, G. DWYER, B. NELSON, and L. THOMPSON. By this time our finances were in a desperate way. We decided to call home, but we had to wait for the push button telephones which were jammed by P. O'CONNELL, S. CHASE, L. NORRIS, M. MONAGHAN. After finally placing our calls, we went to the First National City Bank. After arguing with tellers J. SHEEHAN, and R. ZADROZNY, we finally transacted a loan with J. PAOLUCCI and J. STOLTZ. With this money we visited J. McPHEE, M. MEEHAN, W. SCHELL, and R. HOLBROOK at the Bell System's Floating Wing. We then meandered over to the Hall of Science where we watched J. BROWN, A. BROWN, C. BONANG, J. COSTANTINO, A. DI BONA demonstrate their scientific discoveries. Feeling rich with our loan, we decided to look at houses. The voices of the Talking House seemed to resemble those of T. CENTORINO, E. FITZPATRICK, J. POLIO, J. MOLINE, R. SULLIVAN, M. FARRELL. We still wonder. We were almost knocked over by the World's Fair Fire Department. Led by Fire Chiefs J. WALGREEN, and J. WHALEN, the hook-and-ladder followed, which was driven by J. MacDONALD. We also recognized D. QUERSHER, JA. JOYCE, A. REED, M. WEBB, and G. WILLARD. We started to follow them until our attention was distracted by the Ford Exhibit. Rebuilding antique cars were W. CHASE, W. ZELLA, and G. MacDONALD. Leaving there, we saw a parade of automatically driven Ford convertibles driven by L. BROWN, J. PETTINGEIL, E. TAYLOR, G. KOSLOWSKI, G. McDONALD, and E. NUTTER.

We picked up our luggage at the Hotel Beneath the Sea where manager J. O'NEILL and his staff of G. MANNING, D. RASMUSSEN, R. SEIDLER, E. WAGENER, R. ZANCA, and J. PANAGOS bid us a fond adieu. Before leaving, we decided to say good-bye to R. CLEMENT, K. FRAZIER, B. TASKER, R. GOLDEN, L. CAPOBIANCHI, S. CARLSON, C. HOWE, and J. PAUL, who were all leaving on an Eastern Airlines plane. We were sorry to see our trip come to an end. As we boarded the Long Island Railroad, Engineer R. GREGORY, and fireman, C. LEISTER started the train as we were seated next to P. CASSIDY, K. GIUDICI, and V. LANDRY. Finally we were on our way back to Braintree.

KING PHILIP

JUNE 4, 1965

A lovely Elda

The receiving line's over after two hours

Who's leading who?

The seniors' last social—the Senior Reception

Handspring over the horse

Suspended, in space that is!

A giant swing

Caught in the air

Just look at those muscles!!! Oh, boy

He flies through the air . . . and all that

Is he going to make it?
